2606/8 Financial matters:

I. Proposed: Cllr Haigh, seconded: Cllr K Hseketh

Resolved: The Schedule of Payments for June unanimously were approved including: Ryeslay – pest control £40, Salaries as pay slips, Clerk phone £5.25, WFH £26, Chestnut Mowing £255, Nettleton £1020

- II. The Income and expenditure for May was noted.
- III. The bank statements reconciled with the accounts
- IV. The grants team want proof of ownership original documents – the Clerk will take these to Church Square House and provide the evidence but not leave it with North Lincs Council. This will then be returned to the Community Centre

- V. The internal audit was received and noted. There are no discrepancies on the accounting; the figure that was at the bottom was the incorrect repeated figure that was discussed and resolved at the previous meeting and the Bank Reconciliation was agreed and the accounting statements. The accounts were confirmed as correct and all bank statements were provided for the year for the councillors to compare against the reporting and the internal Audit submission.
Proposed: Cllr Haigh, seconded: Cllr K Hesketh
Resolved: The Council are satisfied that there is no discrepancy in figure with this being £25237.61. There have been no S137 payments this year; the village does not have a war memorial or purchase a wreath and as had no S137 spend – unanimous
- VI. Actions relating to the audit were discussed. Since April the RFO is already using a different reporting system which is far more effective
- VII. The AGAR statements were previously agreed and the Council's response remains unchanged.
